

Yakima, WA

During the 20th Century agriculture, including a wide variety of fruit crops, was the primary factor for the economy. The downtown area has seen the departure of retail stores and others types of businesses. However, beginning around the year 2000 numerous noteworthy businesses have moved downtown. The soil in the region has been favorably compared to the soil in France, which has resulted in a vast number of wineries being established.

- Total Population - 93,416
- Employed Population 16+ - 39,350
- Population % with Bachelor Degree or Higher - 14.8%
- Median Earnings - +$30,575
- Median Family Income - $53,399
- People Living Alone - 30%